In the case of the United States vs. M. Welf, the defendant applied for a continuance on affidavit, which was granted. Cotton case of Jas. Thomas, jr. vs. J. B. Sharpe & Co., was then taken up. It appears from the evidence that Messrs. J S. Sharpe & Co. were tobecco commission merchants in Memphis in 1862; that Jas. Thomas, jr., of Richmond, Va., had lobacco on commission with them at that time; that there was a balance due when Memphiz fell in the hands of the United States of £4960; that the defendants action is action of £4960; that the defendants action is a full formation of the first one, provided it was paid at the value of Confederation of the debt was All of which is respectfully submitted

THE MEAT SHOPS,-Chancellor Smith yesterday dissolved the injunction on the meat shops, which has kept them closed for the past week, and they are all allowed to open again. He stated in his injunction, we understand, that his Court was not the place to discuss the fit-ness of unfitness of the Legislation of the Board of Aldermen. We learn that the meat shep proprietors are about to insti-tute suit against the butchers who closed
